

National Interagency Fire Center invites Vltree for Presentation of Technology

August 2007

Vltree's invitation to present EWAN technology to the National Interagency Fire Center (NIFC) in Boise, Idaho has resulted in the cooperation and coordination in both the development and testing of EWAN in a jointly implemented pilot program scheduled for fall 2008.

